

Mount Hermon Christian Writers Conference 2020
Application for Professional Writers Track with Deborah and Ken Raney

You must apply to participate in the Professional Writers Track. We will review your application to determine whether it seems that joining this group of publishing professionals would be the best use of your time at Mount Hermon. (If you are not accepted into this track, we hope you will prayerfully consider the other tracks to see which one might be an even better option for you this year.)

Criteria:

- You must be registered for the conference.
- You must have at least two books contracted with traditional, royalty-based publishers, or four indie-published books; or a combination of both with a total of at least three published books.
- One of those books must have been released within the last five years.
- You must complete this form and email it to debraney@mac.com no later than March 2, 2020, to be eligible for this track.

If you're a publishing professional but don't meet the criteria exactly and would still like to participate, feel free to apply, and we will consider your application on a case-by-case basis.

Name:

Address:

Email:

Cell phone:

Website:

How many books with traditional, royalty-based publishers have you had published or are you contracted to write?

How many books have you independently published?

List your most recent published or contracted books by title, genre, publisher, and year released:

Download this application, fill it out, and send it as an email attachment to debraney@mac.com no later than March 2, 2020. Please put "MH Pro Track Application" in the subject line.

Notification of acceptance will be sent by March 9, 2020.